FORTIETH CONGRESS.

Rights of American Citizens Abroad—Cases of Contested Election Disposed Of—Joint Resolution for Recess till September Passed--Exciting Debate in the House on the Subject.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, July 23, 1868.

Mr. WILSON introduced a bill for a more efficient provisional government of Mississippi, which was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Also, a resolution directing the Secretary of War to communicate to the Senate the facts relative to the trial of Rush by a military commission at New Orleans for the murder of a colored boy. Adopted.

Mr. HOWE, from the Committee on Claims, reported the House bill relative to the award of $100,000 to the captors of Jeff. Davis, which was amended and passed.

Mr. HOWE introduced a bill in addition to the several acts providing for suppressing insurrection against the Government of the United States. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Howe's bill is as follows:

Be it enacted, &c., That in case of insurrection in either of the States of North Carolina, South Carolina, Florida, Georgia, Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas, against the governments therein, which have been established in pursuance of the act of March 21st, 1867, and the several acts supplementary thereto and amendatory thereof, known as the reconstruction acts, it shall be the duty of the President, on the application of the Legislature of either of the said States, or the Governor, when the Legislature is not in session, to call forth such number of militia in that or any other State, or to employ so much of the land or naval forces of the United States as may be so applied for the suppression of such insurrection; provided, that the authority hereby vested in the President shall be exercised only upon application of the Legislature or of the State executive, or as the case may be chosen, in pursuance of the reconstruction acts aforesaid.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That so much of the first section of the act approved February 28, 1795, entitled "an act to provide for calling forth the militia to execute the laws of the Union, suppress insurrection and repel invasion, and to repeal the act now in force for these purposes," and all other acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed.

Mr. MORRILL offered a resolution directing the Committee on Finance to inquire into the expediency of reporting a bill authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to issue to bona fide holders new bonds in place of old bonds, which he is satisfied are lost or destroyed. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The bill to facilitate the establishing of a line of steamers between New York and Europe was considered amended by providing the postage paid them shall not exceed $600,000 annually and the contract shall cease if trips longer than those made by similar steamships on the same route, and passed.

The bill for the protection of American citizens abroad was taken up.

Mr. BUCKALEW'S amendment of yesterday was adopted—27 to 21.

Mr. CONNESS said all vitalities were stricken out of the bill, and he had no further interest in it.

After some discussion an amendment by Mr. HOWARD was adopted—20 to 19—requesting the President simply to suspend diplomatic relations with any Government doing injustice to citizens abroad.

Mr. FERRY offered a substitute for the bill declaring naturalized citizens entitled to the same protection as native born, and directing the President to take any means authorized by the laws of nations and the Constitution, treaties, and laws of the United States, in case of infringement of the rights of any citizen abroad. This was rejected by 17 to 32.

Mr. FESSENDEN moved to strike out Mr. Howard's amendment.

The latter modified it by striking out the words "it shall be the duty of the President to withdraw," &c., and inserting "the President may," &c.

Mr. FESSENDEN'S motion was rejected—21 to 24.

Mr. WILLIAMS, substituted for the third section was then adopted—32 to 13.

At 5 o'clock, at which hour a recess had been ordered, Mr. TRUMBULL moved to table the bill.

The yeas and nays were ordered, but while they were progressing Mr. FESSENDEN refused to vote, saying the Senate was not legally in session. Other Senators coincided and the Senate took a recess.

Evening Session.—Mr. RAMSEY made a report from the Committee of Conference on the bill to amend the postal laws, which was concurred in.

Mr. SUMNER, from the Committee on Foreign Relations, reported a bill to amend the existing laws so as to prohibit trade in Chinese and Japanese Coolies.

A number of pension bills were passed.

At a quarter before ten o'clock the Senate went into executive session and soon after adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. GARFIELD replied to the remarks Mr. Stevens made yesterday, showing that the extracts quoted were from Mr. Stevens' remarks at the time of the introduction of the bill authorizing the issue of five-twenties and not an entirely different proposition, as alleged yesterday by Mr. Stevens. He affirmed that not one utterance had he been able to find where there was the least intimation that the bonds were payable in anything less than coin. On the contrary, he found three or four distinct statements that they were thus payable.

Mr. STEVENS, Pa., said he had had no controversy with the gentleman from Ohio, and why it was that the gentleman renewed this attack God only knew. He (Mr. Stevens) had spoken yesterday of the gentleman using the language of others. He would show him, when the time came, that there was not a word of truth in either what he or they said.

The Senate amendments to the appropriation bill for the District of Columbia Deaf and Dumb Institute were agreed to, and others added, including one reducing the sum appropriated from $25,000 to $12,500.

The concurrent resolution of the Senate for adjournment from the 27th of July to the third Monday of September, was discussed at length, the debate involving the topics of the Presidential election, impeachment, funding bill, tax bill, and the bill to distribute arms to the South. Finally the previous question was seconded and the Senate resolution concurred in—85 to 69.

Mr. WASHBURNE, of Illinois, moved to reconsider the vote and to postpone that motion until to-morrow.

The SPEAKER stated the President had signed the tax bill.

A Conference Committee was appointed on the bill of appropriation for the District of Columbia Deaf and Dumb Institute.

Mr. CLARK, of Kansas, from the Committee on Military Affairs, reported a bill granting the right of way to a railroad company over the military reservation at Fort Leavenworth. Passed.

The House resumed the consideration of the Missouri contested election case.

The minority resolution, declaring Mr. Hogan, the contestant, elected, was rejected, thirty-three to eighty-eight, and the majority resolution, declaring Mr. Pile, the sitting member, entitled to a seat, agreed to, without division.

A resolution allowing the contestant $2,500 was adopted.

The Utah contested election case came up, and the House decided unanimously that Mr. M'Groarty, contestant, was not entitled to a seat.

During the discussion on the Senate adjournment resolution, Mr. STOKES said that unless the people have arms in the Southern States the Union white and black men will be overrun, and I say it is the duty of Congress to stay here until this measure is put through. My people are expecting every moment that Forrest and his Rebel-Democratic crew will commence making war upon them. They are entitled to ten thousand stand of arms in my district, and requisition was made for that number by the Governor; but only two thousand stand were furnished, and we to-day demand the other eight thousand stand of arms. This is a matter of life and death to us. I am satisfied of the fact that we will need these arms at the South at a very early day. The war cry has gone forth. The rebels say they will rule the country or exterminate the colored Union men, and for one I am disposed to meet them.

Mr. WASHBURNE, of Illinois, had one word to say in reply to the gentleman from Tennessee: I have no doubt of the grievous and perilous state of things which exist in the South, and which the gentleman from Tennessee refers to. But the question—and it is one of the gravest importance ever thrust upon us—whether that state of things is to be remedied by sending arms into those States. Sir, I believe that in most of the States, not ten days after those arms are sent there to the negroes, they will be in the hands of the rebels

Mr. STOKES, in reply to that last remark, said in his district they had already drawn two thousand stand of arms and none of them had gone into the hands of rebels.

Mr. WASHBURNE—I do not allude to that State, but to other States, and I tell the gentlemen to beware before they pass this measure, lest it is not an incitation to civil war and insurrection in these States. (Great excitement.) I now yield to the venerable gentleman from North Carolina, (Mr. Boyden) who wishes to say a few words, and I ask the attention of the House to what he shall say.

Mr. BOYDEN—Mr. Speaker, I am alarmed at the condition of the country. It is proposed to send arms to North Carolina that the people may use them against each other. Great God! We cannot afford to fight each other. Keep away your arms. Do nothing to irritate our people, but do everything in your power to assuage and heal the excitement there. We want no arms. I warn the House that if arms are sent there, we will be ruined. We cannot live there. If we need anything in the way of arms, in God's name send an army of the United States there, but do not arm neighbor against neighbor. There never was a more mischievous measure than this proposition to arm one class of our people against another.

Mr. BOUTWELL raised the point of order that the gentleman was discussing a subject not before the House, which the Speaker sustained.

The previous question was ordered, but subsequently reconsidered to allow Mr. SCHENCK to offer an amendment, making the recess to expire on the 14th of October, or, he said, after two or three of the important elections had taken place, by which time the purpose and temper of the South would be developed.

The debate was then continued at length.

Among the speakers was Mr. DEWEES, of North Carolina, who addressed the House against adjournment. Some provision should be made for the new governments of the Southern States and for the protection of the loyal people, otherwise the rebellion would be re-established—the letter of Mr. Blair would be carried out. If Congress adjourned now, before six months the last traces of Republican governments in the South would have ceased to exist, and the Ku-Klux-Klan, the rebels, the slave-holding copperhead Democratic party would be ruling there as they ruled in 1865.

Mr. WOODWARD enquired of Mr. Dewees whether the reconstructed governments in the South could be maintained in any other way than by force of arms?

Mr. DEWEES—Can you give us arms to keep down rebels triumphant? [Laughter on the Democratic side.]

Mr. WOODWARD—Then I understand the gentleman the governments which Congress has been at such great pains to reconstruct can only exist by the bayonet?

Mr. DEWEES—The gentleman's party in 1861 stole the arms that belonged to the Government of the United States to shoot their loyal neighbors' sons, and the guns are still in the hands of the slaveholding Democratic party.

Mr. JONES asked whether the militia are not armed in North Carolina and were not under the control of the Governor and Legislature of that State as now constituted?

Mr. DEWEES—No, sir! we have no militia.

Mr. JONES—It is your own fault.

Mr. DEWEES—Under the rule of the Democratic party from 1861 to 1865 every musket, shot gun and house pistol was taken out of the hands of loyal men and put into the hands of Southern sympathisers. The support given this question of adjournment on the side of the House where I occupy a seat is for the purpose of carrying out the third of July letter—stamping out the loyal State Governments and dispersing United States carpet-baggers. [Laughter.]

I say come on whenever you feel disposed! Come on! Stretch out, then, your traitorous hands to touch again one fold of the old flag, and the representatives of four millions of men (who, though black in skin are white and loyal in heart,) will throw themselves as a bulwark between you and these loyal governments, and you will only live in the sad memories of bad events. Come on! Come on! [Unrestrained laughter among the Democrats.] If you want to sustain those governments you have got to give us some assistance.

Mr. ROSS—Is there not some danger of the Republicans losing the election there unless they get arms?

Mr. KELLEY—Is there not more danger of the Republicans, white and black, losing their lives?

Mr. RANDALL—They would be able to go under a bench as my colleague did in Mobile. [This remark apparently did not reach the ear of Mr. Kelley.]

Mr. SCHENCK closed the debate and moved two amendments to the Senate resolution: first, that the adjournment take place on Friday, 31st instant; and second, that the recess continue until the 14th of October. Both amendments were rejected, the vote on the first being 66 yeas and 92 nays, and on the second there was no division.

The resolution was then concurred in—yeas 85, nays 69.

Adjourned till ten o'clock to-morrow morning, the first two hours to be devoted to business on the Speaker's table.

United States Tariff Considered in the French Legislature--Proposition for the Disuse of Explosive Bullets in Time of War--Bill Passed in English House of Commons to Purchase the Telegraph in the Kingdom--Crop Reports.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

FRANCE.

PARIS, July 23.—In the Corps Legislatif yesterday, while the revenue bill was under consideration, a proposition was made by way of amendment to the bill to restore the duties which were formerly imposed on all American resinous products imported into France. The proposition gave rise to a lively debate. It was supported on the ground that the restoration of duties on imports from America was justified by the excessively high tariff now imposed by the United States on articles of French production. The measure, however, was strongly opposed by the free trade members of the Chamber.

M. Osenne, member of the Council of State and Director of Foreign Commerce, explained the views of the government. He said they had closely watched the changes which had been made from time to time in the tariff law of the United States, and they greatly lamented that such heavy burdens had been imposed on French productions, but they were not disposed to adopt a system of retaliation which could only result in injury to the commercial interests of both countries.

After further debate the amendment was rejected.

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, July 23—Midnight.—In the House of Lords this evening Lord Shaftsbury asked if the Ministry could give the House any information concerning the reported proposition of the Russian government for the disuse of explosive bullets.

The Earl of Malmesbury replied that Her Majesty's Government were in receipt of a note from the Czar making the suggestion that all the great powers unite in an agreement to abandon the use of explosive bullets in time of war. He added his Government had reason to believe that Prussia had already given her consent to the proposal, and steps were now being taken for a meeting of an international military commission at an early day at St. Petersburg to consider the question and settle details of a definite agreement.

In the House of Commons to-night the bill providing for the purchase of all telegraph lines in the United Kingdom by the Government was finally passed.

The Coal Miners' Strike.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SCRANTON, PA., July 23.—About two hundred strikers, armed with clubs, appeared in the streets of Wilkesbarre on Monday afternoon and Tuesday morning. They visited the mines and shops about Wilkesbarre, forcing the men in all but one instance to quit work. On Tuesday afternoon they marched to Pittston, stopping the works on the way. To-day they have been engaged in stopping the works about Pittston, and preventing trains from running on the Pennsylvania Coal Company's Railroad. It is reported that they are not generally violating the peace or exciting much alarm. They have received accessions, and are supposed to be now five hundred strong. They are in two bodies, one marching on Dunmore and one on this city. The columns are to form a junction here to-morrow morning, and it has been decided not to resist them here so long as they commit no outrages. The miners and workmen will generally turn out on the arrival of the strikers, and probably resume work again as soon as they are gone. The speaker of the strikers is an Irishman named James Lawler. He says their purpose is to secure ten hours' pay for eight hours' work.

SECOND DISPATCH.

SCRANTON, Pa., July 33.—The story of the strikers having killed a man at Pittston, yesterday, is untrue. The party last night abandoned their purpose of coming to Scranton and turned towards Wilkesbarre by different routes, being dispersed and the movement at an end. All the miners about Pittston returned to work this morning. Mining has not been interrupted here.

Washington Topics and Gossip.

Specials of yesterday state: The Impeachment talk of the new Southern members and their friends from the unreconstructed States seems to produce no effect whatever upon the prevailing sentiment of Congress, and there is no prospect that the measure they demand will receive the serious attention of either House.

The President has not signed the tax bill. He says he cannot approve certain portions of the act, but rather than delay the proceedings of Congress he will probably allow the bill to become a law by limitation.

All the Southern members of Congress, except two, with a number of Northern Republican Representatives, are in favor of impeaching the President at the present session, for views put forward in the veto to the electoral college bill. They think that the Senate would remove Johnson now if he should be tried upon strong charges, such as they think they could present and prove.

Mr. Petters, nominated for Naval Officer of New York, is opposed by both Senators Conkling and Morgan, and will not be confirmed.

The Senate has agreed to adjourn on Monday until the third Monday in September, but the members of the House seem to favor a recess instead of adjournment. The Radical Senators say they can watch the course of Mr. Johnson during the month in which they are away, and if he should misbehave he may then be impeached and removed before the fall election.

The bill reported from the Reconstruction Committee giving the Constitutional Convention of Texas the right to appoint and remove officers, will pass both Houses, but will no doubt be pocketed by the President, if he has not time to veto it.

There are now only forty bills on the Speaker's table, and these can be disposed of by Saturday, when Congress will probably adjourn or take a recess.

The bill creating the Territory of Wyoming will probably be passed.

It is believed that the Conference Committee will agree to the Alaska bill in an acceptable form.

LYNCH LAW IN INDIANA.

The gang of villains at Seymour, Indiana, having been broken up the arrest of three of the leaders, these were taken first to Cincinnati and then sent back to Seymour for trial. What came of them is told by a Cincinnati journal as follows:

During the trip from this city, nothing of interest occurred until the train approached Seymour. Three miles out of that place it was met by a crowd of intensely excited citizens, heavily armed, breathing vengeance against the prisoners, and demanding immediate and summary punishment upon them.

The subterfuge resorted to by the mob was the exhibition of a signal of distress—a red light—upon the track, upon seeing which the engineer whistled down brakes. No sooner had the train come to a stand-still, than the bulk of the so-called Vigilance Committee, who were concealed in a thicket near by, boarded and took possession of the train, overpowered the guards, and removed the prisoners to terra firma.

The poor wretches too fully comprehended what was to be done. Five minutes were given them in which to prepare for death, while the executioners, with a grim earnestness, placed the fatal noose about their necks.

They at first begged for mercy, but finding it in vain, they concluded to make a confession, and while standing with the noose around their necks, the unfortunate men confessed to the whole affair, and also admitted their knowledge of the celebrated Marshfield robbery, committed some months ago on the Louisville and Indianapolis Railroad, each blaming the other two, and denying any personal connection with the same.

For the purpose of receiving this confession, the time was extended to half an hour, at the end of which the ropes were drawn, and these wretched desperadoes, covered with crime, were launched into eternity.

The crowd then dispersed, after the writhing bodies had stiffened in the chilling embrace of the King of Terrors, and yesterday morning they were seen dangling from the branches of a giant of the forest, their faces horribly contorted and purple, and their glaring eyes protruding from their sockets, a frightful warning to the remainder of the band which infests that locality, more especially those who are pursued and likely to be captured.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

STORY OF A LIFE.

Born at night; dressed in white—
Curl tended early. Bright and fair—
Smooth brown hair, light and curly.

Grew apace—form and face
Full of beauty. Grateful child,
Sweet and mild, loving duty.

Sweet sixteen! Fairy Queen,
Bright and blushing! Hopes and fears—
Idle tears free out-gushing.

Wedding night! dressed in white—
Summers twenty! charming bride—
Far and wide, friends are plenty.

Hearts of joy! first-born boy
Hails the dawning! Mother sleeps—
Angel keeps watch till morning.

Stately dame! spotless name—
Best of mothers! children rare,
Brave and fair; like no others.

Threescore-and-ten! Ah! my pen
Sadly lingers. Wrinkles deep—
Icy creep death's cold fingers.

Burial night all dressed in white,
Sweet peace be given. Blest is she,
Spirit free—gone to Heaven!

IN THE SCORCHING HEAT of the summer, when the unkind mercury, like most self-made men, refuses to be kept down, and the chief end and occupation of man, and woman too, is the hunting out of comparatively cool places, and capturing them; heavy reading becomes an impossibility, and histories and sciences are allowed to take a vacation, while their fair, and unfair, readers take to novels and essays as being the lightest and pleasantest of all companions; for even the labor of gossiping is too much for one, when the thermometer stands "above par" in the shade. This being a well understood and periodical fact, we have been accustomed to look out, about this time of the year, with pleasure, for a freshet of entertaining and easy reading, not exactly in two syllables, but certainly as refreshing. But this year, whether it be owing to the mighty deluge of editions of Dickens early in the year, or to some other and, to us, unknown cause, we have looked in vain for a repetition of the usual custom. Old books, even though they be good, are not always what we desire, and yet this year we have but little choice in the matter. Last year everybody had Mühlbach on the brain, and at the watering places, the usual question, "Is it warm enough for you?" gave place to "Have you read Joseph the Second?" to such an alarming extent that we verily believe Mr. APPLETON owes much of the large sale of that book, to the desperate determination of many persons to get rid of the question with the least possible trouble, by reading the fashionable book. But now Mühlbach is out of date, and no one has arisen to take her place. Editions of DICKENS, THACKERAY, BULWER and even MARRYAT, (for which last we have again to thank the APPLETONS,) keep coming out, but they are more or less standard and can hardly fill the void occasioned by this dearth of summer reading. It has perhaps been an especial decree of Providence and the publishers in view of the intensity and long duration of the heated term, but it is none the less noticeable and to be regretted on that account.

J. B. HARRIS' SAFETY FIRE JACKET,

Car Heater and Moderator,

For SMOKE AND HOT AIR FLUES, dispensing with the use of Stoves and Fires in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached.

Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended. It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues, or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c., wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desired. I will sell, on application, rights to manufacture or to use the above invention; also, territorial rights, to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges, either by State or county.

RIVER NEWS.

The weather was close and sultry yesterday. with a thunder storm, and some rain in the evening. The river has risen several inches, under the influence of the recent heavy showers, the metal marks last evening indicating about fourteen inches.

It is rumored that a movement is on foot to consolidate the two Brownsville packet companies.

—The Columbia has returned from her trip to Fort Benton. She left Benton with 130 cabin passengers.

—A notice of a recent steamboat explosion in a western paper ends as follows: "The captain swam ashore. So did the chambermaid; she was insured for $15,000 and loaded with iron."

—The St. Louis Republican, of Wednesday, says: Capt. W.B. Haziest is all ready for a trip to Niagara and other fashionable watering places, and will probably start this evening. The Captain is a great 'ca ch,' and we expect he will come back caught. (?)

—We clip from the St. Louis Democrat of Wednesday: The Columbia was out from this port three months and a half; sparred nearly all the way from Sioux City to the Yellowstone. The Peninah will probably leave this week for Pittsburgh, after the Ida Reea, which Captain Albert says he will not back out from this port until he has a full cargo on board.

—Montana papers state that the steamer Guidon is to be taken bodily overland around the great falls above Benton, and is hereafter to ply as a regular packet in waters heretofore undisturbed by a steamer's wheel, adding many more miles to the navigation of the Missouri. It is another western enterprise. The boat will be placed on skids and snaked overland by bull trains.

—The decks of the City of Boston, in the recent collision on the Sound, afforded some pitiable displays of the selfishness of human nature. One so-called gentleman fastened a life-preserver around his vigorous frame, and silenced his wife, who was crying for one, with the words. "Don't make such a fuss about it: perhaps you'll get one before long." Another stalwart fellow took a life-preserver from a young lady and buckled it on himself.

—An English paper says that a "gentleman last season took lodgings for the season on board the Ramsgate steamer Eagle, and accompanied the vessel on every trip, deriving much benefit from the sea air. The directors of the company have determined to fit up a limited number of berths on board this vessel and the Albion, which will shortly commence running for the convenience of persons who may feel inclined to engage them. They may be had by the week, month, or for the whole season."

—The Cincinnati Gazette, of Wednesday, has the following items: The R. C. Gray, Capt. Ike. Whittaker, has her sign out for Memphis, and will take New Orleans freight.........The towboat Zebra, with wave boats, is engaged in removing obstructions to navigation between here and Louisville.........The Big Sandy packet, Telegraph, and the Portsmouth packet, Bostona, were laid up yesterday. The Robt. Moore took the place of the former, and the Emma Floyd left in place of the latter.........M. C. D. Miller, river editor of the the Commercial, leaves for the lakes today, to escape the heat of the city.

—St. Louis dispatches, under date of Tuesday, says: New Orleans freight advanced yesterday, as per agreement between steamboat owners and Barge Company. Steamboat rates are: Flour 40c per barrel, corn 30c per sack, pound freight 20c per 100. Barge Company's rates are 3c less on flour, 1½c on corn and pound freight. This course became necessary in order to insure paying trips. Freight is scarce yet, and not for over a month yet will the Barge Company send two tows per week to New Orleans. Freight rates may be advanced still further next week. The Missouri is falling all the way from Benton, and very fast below Stevenson. If the decline in the upper Missouri and Illinois continues, both will be difficult to navigate in a few days. The Mary McDonald, which left this port on Tuesday, for Omaha, broke a shaft at Eureka, 18 miles above Jefferson City, and returned to that city. The Gerard B. Allen arrived from Fort Stevenson, having made the round trip in 30 days. The Lizzie Gill is to-day's for New Orleans, and the America for Pittsburgh.

FRIDAY, JULY 24, 1868.

PITTSBURGH GAZETTE FOR THE CAMPAIGN.

The Presidential fight having now fairly begun, and the newspaper press being one of the best weapons for effectual warfare, we propose to furnish the GAZETTE for the Campaign at the very low rate of 40 cents per copy for the WEEKLY, and $2 for the DAILY, from now to the close of the Presidential election.

The GAZETTE has been an earnest, consistent and efficient advocate of Republican principles, from the start, and it is therefore all the better qualified to present Republican arguments now, in this decisive contest, which must settle conclusively whether the nation shall go back to the old domination of slavery and the slave power, or go forward to the full fruition of the results accomplished by the war.

The old Southern politicians, galvanized into new life by the Democratic nominations at New York, unhesitatingly avow that all the Confederacy fought for is to be gained in the election of Seymour and Blair, and that secession is not dead, but is to be fully and finally triumphant in the success of the Democratic candidates.

It has also been plainly given out, by the Democratic candidate for Vice President, that the Democracy, if successful this fall, intend to overturn by force the State Governments established by the people of the South, thus giving notice in advance of another war, and the Democratic Convention, in nominating him for the Vice Presidency, gave the emphatic endorsement of the party to the incendiary and revolutionary threat.

Shall what the Confederacy fought for, and failed to attain, be now attained through Seymour's success? Shall secession, overturned and defeated in the field, be allowed to triumph at the polls? Shall the Democracy, under the lead of Seymour and Blair, be permitted to inaugurate a new Rebellion?

If not, it behooves the Republicans of Western Pennsylvania to labor with an earnestness and zeal befitting the perils of the hour: and one of the surest ways of meeting the enemy successfully is to circulate Republican papers freely, and put them into the hands of all who are willing to read them.

To this end we offer the GAZETTE at a very low rate for the campaign. There are very few men who cannot afford to give forty cents to aid the good cause by circulating a good Republican paper.

Try it, friends, try it for your neighbors. There is scarcely a neighborhood in the country in which from ten to twenty more weekly papers cannot be distributed to advantage; and a few thousand weekly papers read carefully from now to the election will do more good than tens of thousands of Congressional speeches.

WE PRINT on the inside pages of this morning's GAZETTE: Second page: Ephemeris, Advice to Tourists, Third and Sixth pages: Commercial and River News. Seventh page: Marriage by Wholesale, Decay of Stone Buildings in Cities, Relic of Marie Antoinette, Clippings.

THE Erie Dispatch urges the selection of the Hon. JOHN H. WALKER, of that county, for United States Senator.

WAS Mr. BURT, the Democratic candidate for Congress, a Know-Nothing in Know-Nothing times? It might be well for the foreign-born citizens, who are asked to vote for him, to push the inquiry.

MR. BURT accounts for everything that goes against himself and the Democracy by charging it on the bondholders. The bondholders are buying up everything and everybody. It is creditable, however, to their sagacity, that they have not attempted to buy him up.

THE New York World of the 22d prints BLAIR's indecent letter accepting his nomination, without a word of editorial reference thereto, commendatory or otherwise. An effective hint to the candidate that there are some things a little too strong for well-ordered stomachs, even of Democratic politicians.

WE observe Democratic journals commend Gen. GRANT to their readers as a candidate who, if elected with a Democratic Congress, would be a Democrat himself in his Executive policy. This generous but indiscreet endorsement of the Republican candidate will materially increase his popular strength.

MR. WM. D. MOORE, in the Democratic Convention on Wednesday, after denouncing GRANT as a "butcher" in the usual style, said that GRANT "kept his mouth shut that people might not know he was a fool." The converse of that proposition applies with peculiar force to Mr. WM. D. MOORE. He keeps his mouth open for the contrary reason.

ALL QUESTIONS as to the insufficiency of the ratification of the XIVth Amendatory Article, based upon the withdrawal of Ohio and New Jersey, have been set at rest by the later addition of Georgia to the list of States assenting. The full three-quarter vote is now assured, even without the two States named.

SINCE the recent developments of rebel designs to seize the control of the Government by violent means, the desire of Congress for an early adjournment has given place to a resolution to provide adequate safeguards for the public peace. The needful legislation will be devised and matured, and then a recess may be taken for a few weeks.

THE DEMOCRATS are fond of renegades. Their candidate for State Senator was first an Odd Fellow; then an Anti-Mason and editor of an Anti-Masonic paper; he then became a strong Abolitionist; and after serving in the Republican ranks has finally turned up a pro-slavery Democrat, a supporter of SEYMOUR and his baby-roasting "friends," and an endorser of BLAIR's revolutionary programme.

CONGRESS will take efficient measures to protect the public peace, which has been so boldly menaced in his Southern States by the President and the revolutionary friends of the Democratic party. Their proclamation of another war has been prematurely made public, and the law-making power will provide suitable means to guard against all contingencies, by upholding the recognized State governments, and fortifying the results of reconstruction against the threatened assaults.

THE Republican Senators who were led to vote for the acquittal of the impeached President, in consideration of his disposition to mend his ways, to abandon his incendiary opposition to the loyal sentiment of the country, to make a more reasonable use of his official patronage, and to be a model President for the remainder of his term, must have derived intense satisfaction from the perusal of his last Veto Message. Perhaps they will favor the public with an analytic exposition of its proofs of that conversion, which they prophesied with such sanguine faith.

IS THE A. W. FOSTER, whom the Democrats have nominated for Senator, the same A. W. FOSTER who joined the Odd Fellows and then revealed the working machinery of the Order? The same A. W. FOSTER who did this afterwards sued JOHN B. BUTLER, for libel, in characterizing the act as mean, and when the Grand Jury returned the bill "ignoramus" accounted for the fact by charging it on "The Papists" on the jury. It can hardly, however, be the same man, as the A. W. FOSTER now brought forward looks to these same "Papists" to support him.

A FORMIDABLE TICKET.

The party in the majority sometimes makes the mistake of putting forth a weak ticket, but the party in the minority generally nominates its best men. The Democracy of this county, however, has reversed the rule, and has made a ticket of the worst materials it could possibly find. Imitating the policy of the New York Convention, in nominating BLAIR, a traitor to all parties and faithful to none, it has sought for and found his counterparts in BURT and FOSTER—men who have been everything by turns and nothing long—to head their ticket, and in selecting their Assembly ticket, the great aim seems to have been to find men conspicuous for obscurity. FRETHY? MCGINTY? ROGERS? LYNCH? WHISTON? ALEXANDER? Who are they? Did anybody ever hear of them before? They may be very illustrious men in a very small circle; but their lustre has evidently not shone very far. What they are and who they are is nothing to nobody. The Democracy of Allegheny County never committed such a blunder as this before.

THE WAR-LIKE THREATS—NORTH AND SOUTH.

The Charleston Mercury, which probably did more than any other Southern journal to bring about the late war, and which is now a staunch supporter of SEYMOUR and BLAIR, thus shows that another war will be commenced if its favorites are elected. On the other hand, the Northern Copperheads, following the renegade BLAIR, are strenuous for another war, in case their candidate shall be defeated. And both wings of the party are agreed to dispute the validity of any election which shall be decided by the votes of the new Southern States. Our readers are familiar with the BLAIR and JOHNSON programme, but it will interest them to examine the annexed semi official exposition of rebel opinions and intentions as put forth in the Mercury. Here it is:

Suppose, now, that the Democratic party carries the next Presidential election, and installs its President in the White House. Must they not, forthwith, proceed to undo the wrong, and restore the Constitution? Is this impossible? Why is it so? The Government of the United States used the army of the United States to elevate the negro to supremacy over the white man, in violation of the Constitution. What is there to prevent it being used to put the Southern States back to their original condition, of the supremacy of the white man over the negro, in vindication of the Constitution?

But it is said that the negro State Governments can prohibit the white population from taking any steps to vindicate their supremacy or the supremacy of the Constitution. They can call on the President of the United States for assistance to enforce their unconstitutional rule, and the President is bound to obey under that clause of the Constitution which says: "The United States shall, on application of the Legislature, or of the Executive, (when the Legislature cannot be convened,) protect each State against domestic violence."

"Domestic violence!" But the white population do not mean to institute "domestic violence." They intend to assail no one, pretending or not pretending to authority in the Southern States. They mean peaceably to meet in Convention, probably recommended by the legislators of their former legitimate State Governments, and in such a Convention form a Constitution for the government of these States. The Dorrites, in 1842, did this without any question or molestation, when seeking to substitute a more popular government in Rhode Island than that existing under the charter of King Charles II. It is the rightful privilege of the people under the Constitution of the United States peaceably to assemble when they please, and for what purposes they please.

But it may be said that the negro Governments in the Southern States will not permit the white population to assemble. They will assail them with violence. Suppose this is done, does it afford any ground for their support by the military authority of the United States? Clearly not. A Democratic President would most probably answer, to any application to him by the negro Governments for assistance: "In my opinion, your Government in the first place is unconstitutional and revolutionary, and therefore I decline to recognize your application; and in the second place, you violate the Constitution of the United States in endeavoring by force to prevent peaceable assemblies by the people." Such an answer, in our judgment, would secure a peaceful progress of events. We do not think the negro Governments in the South will attempt, by their own power, to force their rule over the white population. Supposing that this will be the course of things, the white population will proceed to form a Constitution and elect State officers and representatives to Congress. This can be done by the fourth of March next. Upon each branch of Congress then will devolve the responsibility of determining which are the legitimate Governments of the Southern States, the negro Government or the white man's Government. This determination can be sought and be obtained before any contest is made in the Southern States at all, as to these Governments. We know how it will be determined in Congress. The late protest by the Democratic members of Congress in the House of Representatives against the admission of the carpet-baggers from Arkansas, clearly indicates the course of the House of Representatives under Democratic control. The white men's representatives will be admitted. In the Senate it will be different; but a Democratic Executive will certainly regard the action of the House of Representatives as the controlling authority to determine his duty. If, after this, any "domestic violence" takes place in any of the Southern States, he will recognize the white men's Government as entitled to his support by his intervention, if any is required.

But let us suppose that the negro Governments shall lawlessly endeavor to prevent the peaceable assemblies of the white population to reorganize their Government—what then? The white population is amply sufficient to protect themselves. All they want is that the Government of the United States shall stand aloof. If the negroes are fools enough to attempt by their power to establish their supremacy over the white race in the Southern States, they can try it, but the trial will not likely last very long. We will have no objection to the Government of the United States insisting on enforcing peace. In either way the white population will form a republican Government, and will send representatives to Congress to represent the State, and Congress will settle which are the rightful Governments in the Southern States according to the Constitution of the United States.

ON THE 17th of the present month, Mr. THADDEUS STEVENS, in his place in the House of Representatives, declared that it was the common understanding when the bill authorizing the 5-20 bonds was up for consideration, that the principal was payable, not in money, but in currency; that the Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means, who presented the bill, so stated repeatedly; that no other opinion was expressed; and that he would, under no circumstances, consent to the payment of these bonds in money.

On Feb. 6, 1862, Mr. STEVENS made a speech on the Legal Tender bill, in which he said:

"This money would soon lodge in large quantities with the capitalists and banks, who must take them. But the instinct of gain, perhaps I may call it avarice, would not allow them to keep it long unproductive. A dollar in the miser's safe unproductive is a sore disturbance. Where could he invest it? IN UNITED STATES LOANS AT SIX PER CENT., REDEEMABLE IN GOLD IN TWENTY YEARS, THE BEST AND MOST VALUABLE PERMANENT INVESTMENT THAT COULD BE DESIRED. The Government would thus again possess such notes in exchange for bonds, and again re-issue them. I have no doubt that thus the $500,000,000 of bonds authorized would be absorbed in less time than would be needed by the Government. * * * When further loans are wanted, you need only authorize the sale of more bonds. The same $150,000,000 of notes will be ready to take them."

Further on, in the same speech, he said:

"Gentlemen are clamorous in favor of those who have debts due them, lest the debtor should the more easily pay his debt. I do not much sympathize with such importunate money-lenders. But widows and orphans are interested and in tears lest their estates should be badly invested. I PITY NO ONE WHO HAS HIS MONEY INVESTED IN UNITED STATES BONDS, PAYABLE IN GOLD IN TWENTY YEARS, WITH INTEREST SEMI-ANNUALLY."

SCHUYLER COLFAX said in 1864:

I will lay down three facts here, the truths of which no man, be he Democratic editor or orator, will dare to challenge:

Every man who is a leader in the rebellion in the South, such as President, Vice-President, members of the Cabinet, Speaker of the House of Representatives, the heads of their armies, every one of them is a Democrat of the olden time.

Second. Every man they relied upon in the North, when they drew the sword of treason against the country and raised their banner red with blood, is a Democratic leader to-day.

Third. The Administration which was in power when the rebellion broke out, which could by prompt and vigorous measures have crushed it out in its infancy, as Jackson crushed out nullification and treason in South Carolina thirty years ago; that Administration which looked on with closed eyes and ears, allowing the rebellion to go on, and doing not one thing to save the Union from destruction, was in all parts Democratic. And further: Every man who stood up in Congress in that dark winter, when State after State was seceding, and said: "No coercion!" "You cannot coerce a sovereign State"—every one was a Democrat.

LAST fall Frank P. Blair passed down the Missouri river on a steamer which lay for some time at our levee. A number of our citizens went aboard to pay their respects to him. At length conversation turned upon the relative merits of Grant and Sherman, when one of the gentlemen present expressed it as his opinion that Sherman was much the abler man of the two. To this remark Mr. Blair promptly replied, "By G—d, Grant knows more than Sherman and all the balance of them banged into one!" Will the supporters of Mr. Blair accept this opinion of their chief and cease their senseless twaddle about Grant's incapacity?—St. Joseph (Mo.) Union.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

NEW POEMS. By Owen Meredith. In two volumes. Volume I. Chronicles and Characters. Volume II. Chronicles and Characters. Orval and other Poems. Published by Ticknor and Fields, Boston. For sale by Robert S. Davis, No. 93 Wood street, Pittsburgh.

Many of our readers are aware that "Owen Meredith" is the nom de plume of Robert Bulwer Lytton, only son of Lord Lytton, inheriting in a large degree the talents of his father. For many years he has been in diplomatic life, and is now Secretary of Legation in Madrid. The new poems, "Characters and Chronicles," are from the legends of Ancient Greece and other nations; a collection of romances and ballads; a dramatic poem, "Orval;" imitations and paraphases of Nonos, Virgil and Dante, including a new version of the Francesca da Runine episode in the Fifth Canto of the Inferno; Michelagnolo Buonarrotti, the sculptor; Ronsaid, and some Danish poets, with thirty-one pieces in the manner of the Servian poets. The variety of measure and range of subjects are noticeable features. To give an idea of the grandeur of these poems we ought to give passages from some of them, but the want of space prevents it. Passages of great beauty and sublimity abound, and delicate word-painting, showing the master hand of the gifted author. There is a gorgeousness in their construction, and massiveness of thought, that commend the writings of the author, and which are noteworthy in former productions of his pen. The tastes of the most fastidious and scholarly will find something to feast their minds. The small pieces in the closing part of the second volume are fragrant with sweet melody, and are fine specimens of dainty word-painting. The popularity of "Owen Meredith" will be increased by the publication of these two volumes. Ticknor & Fields have brought out the work in elegant style.

HOUSE PAINTING—PLAIN AND DECORATIVE. By John W. Masury. Published by D. Appleton & Co., New York. For sale by Henry Miner, Pittsburgh.

This is a popular treatise on the art of House Painting, giving the nature, composition and mode of production of paints and painter's colors, and their proper and harmonious combination and arrangement. Common place as a subject of this kind may appear to most people, it is rare to find such a familiar topic so admirably treated. It contains useful information, not only for those who desire the services of this class of persons of the mechanic arts, but for those engaged in catering to the public taste, very few of whom either have proper judgment or taste in this branch of business. The subject is treated, not only in its economical and practical form, but in its æsthetic aspect. The work, too, reflects credit on the talented author, and it is worthy of being introduced as a hand-book for extensive use.

A STRANGE STORY, And the Haunted and the Haunters. By Sir Edward Bulwer Lytton, Bart. Complete in one volume. Published by J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia. For sale by R. S. Davis, 93 Wood street, Pittsburgh.

As volume after volume of the "Globe Edition" has appeared, we have had occasion to speak of its excellencies, both in regard to type, paper and binding. Its convenient form makes it desirable for use in traveling, as well as for library purposes. It is surprising how cheaply this elegant edition is offered. The writings of Bulwer need no commendation, as they are familiar to the public. Book buyers will do well to purchase this edition for their libraries.

THE HISTORY OF PENDENNIS. By William Makepeace Thackeray. With illustrations. Published by Wyncoop & Sherwood. For sale by Henry Miner, Pittsburgh.

This dainty little volume of the great satirist, Thackeray, is gotten up in such convenient form for use, that its small print will be overlooked. It is printed in double columns, and contains nearly five hundred pages. Thackeray's portrait, on steel, as a frontispiece, is an admirable likeness of this popular writer. Several illustrations are interspersed throughout the work, and the mechanical execution is excellent. Pendennis is too well known to need anything more than to announce the name. Wynkoop & Sherwood have dissolved partnership, and are succeeded by P. S. Wynkoop & Son, at the old stand, 108 Fulton street, New York.

THE LIVES OF GENERAL U. S. GRANT AND SCHUYLER COLFAX. Published by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia. For sale by W. A. Gildenfenny, Pittsburgh.

This work—Campaign Edition—is a complete history of the Lives of General Ulysses S. Grant and of the Hon. Schuyler Colfax, from their birth up to the present time. It is admirably arranged for reference, and each chapter is brief and without any waste of words in detailing the noted events of these distinguished persons. The work is devoted mainly to giving the wonderful achievements of Grant. It is not surprising that foreign journals speak of Grant's generalship in glowing terms. The volume is sold at a low price, only one dollar.

HANS BREITMAN'S PARTY. With other ballads. Published by T. B. Peterson & Brothers. For sale by W. A. Gildenfenny, Pittsburgh.

This neatly printed work, paper covers, gives the adventures of a German in peace and war. It is an amusing brocheure, and shows considerable ingenuity in producing the ballads. The studied bad spelling of the Josh Billings style, will not be relished by every person.

THE GOSPEL IN THE TREES: with Pulpit Opinions on Common Things. By Rev. Alexander Clark, A. M. Published by J. W. Daughaday & Co., Philadelphia. For sale by Henry Miner, Pittsburgh.

Rev. Mr. Clark, the author, is pastor of the First Methodist (Protestant) Church of this city, and our neighbor. During the delivery of the discourses much interest was awakened, not only because of the novelty of the topics, but by the beautiful and interesting lessons taught by the analogies of nature. The ordinary reader of the Word of God would hardly suppose so much wisdom and instruction could be taught by the orchard and the forest. Gifted with a poetic nature these discourses have been highly wrought by the author in beautiful imaginary and glowing words. Lessons of much interest are also taught by the discourses on common things. The work is dedicated to the author's only brother, W. McCall Clark, associate editor of the Schoolday Visitor, and Edward E. Rinehart, chorister of the church, of which he is pastor. Rev. Dr. Reeves, President of the Pittsburgh Conference, introduces the work at considerable length. The volume is elegantly printed.

SCOTT'S POETICAL WORKS. Complete. With a Life of the Author. Published by D. Appleton & Co., New York. For sale by Henry Miner, Pittsburgh.

Even in these days of cheap literature, it is surprising that such a stout volume of about 650 pages, so well gotten up, can be furnished at the low price of fifty cents. These enterprising publishers have commenced the issue of a popular edition of the Standard Poets, this being the first of the series. Milton, Burns and others are to follow. The merits of Scott's poems are too well known to need any commendation from us.

A MENTAL ARITHMETIC, by G. P. Quackenbos, A. M., author of "An English Grammar," etc. Published by D. Appleton & Co., New York. For sale by Henry Miner, Pittsburgh.

Previous volumes of Appleton's Mathematical Series, by Mr. Quackenbos, have been well received by the public. In this small book of 158 pp. we have embodied in a popular form, questions and answers in mental science extending through the various operations of life in the outer world. This accomplished educator has performed a good work for the young, and it will prove a blessing to thousands.

LIFE OF HON. SCHUYLER COLFAX. By Rev. A. Y. Moore, of South Bend, Indiana. With a portrait. Published by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia. For sale by W. A. Gildenfenny, Pittsburgh.

This work is much unlike the hastily prepared biographies for popular sale, usually before the public. The matter has been carefully prepared by one competent for the delicate duty, who had rare opportunities to know his subject well. The portrayal of a character like the genial Speaker of the House of Representatives, independent of his nomination for the Vice Presidency, one so fully rounded and symmetrical, both in every-day record in life's duties and moral elements, is a pleasant task for the writer of such a work. Rarely do we find one like him in public life, free from glaring defects in his public career. Step by step he has risen in public favor, until the next highest gift of this great country is likely to be bestowed upon him. The Rev. Mr. Moore has done his work well, and we look for a wide sale of this excellent work.

WAS IT A GHOST? THE MURDERS IN BUSSEY WOOD. Published by Loring, Boston, Mass. For sale by Henry Miner, Pittsburgh.

This extraordinary narrative is founded upon a terrible event which occurred in the neighborhood of Boston. The contents indicate that the book is full of incident, and we expect it will attract many readers. Its thrilling description of crime and wrong doing, give it a sensational cast.

MELLOR'S MUSICAL MIRROR. Published by Charles C. Meller, Pittsburgh.

With the advent of Spring days the "Musical Mirror" made its appearance, unpretentious and almost unheralded. It fills a much needed want in our music-loving community; and we know of none more capable in our city of conducting successfully such an enterprize than Mr. Mellor, the editor and proprietor. Dr. Joseph Ebert, is to be the associate editor. The third number is just out—terms only fifty cents per year.

APPLETON'S CHEAP PUBLICATIONS: The publishing house of D. Appleton & Co., New York, have commenced the publication of standard authors in cheap form, elsewhere noticed. We have received through Mr. Henry Miner of this city, the first volume of the Sea Tales of Captain Marryatt, "Midshipman Easy," at the low price of forty cents, printed on good paper and clear type. Also received through Mr. Miner the "Bride of Lamermoor," of the Waverly series—price twenty five cents.

A MODEL CANDIDATE.

The annexed article, which we find in our exchanges, presents a very strong indictment against the morality and honor of the individual named. Will not some of his Democratic friends, whom he was in the habit of abusing vilely three years ago, correct the record, if erroneous? Read:

The personal habits of Frank P. Blair, Democratic candidate for the Vice Presidency, and possible, though not probable, incumbent of that high office, are of some consequence to the American people. By the side of the Missouri apostate, in this respect, Andrew Johnson is a decent, and Senator Saulsbury a sober man. Frank P. Blair is a drunkard, but one remove from the gutter. His character in this respect is well known. It is as flagrant as that of the most indecent bawd ever fined before a magistrate. I have, years ago, seen him addressing public meetings while scarcely able to stand or talk straight. He disgusted everybody East when he came into sober New England in 1860 to speak and lecture. He has been carried "dead drunk" from political meetings. When in Congress his vices were most notorious. So in the army, his headquarters were the most debauched and depraved. Nothing but the powerful political influence that dwelt in his name kept him in his position! Of physical bravery Frank P. Blair has sufficient. Of generalship or military capacity, but very little.

These vicious habits lead to other peculiarities, which are known to all. Here are a couple of illustrations. There will be found in the proper books of the Treasury, in substance, the following entries:

"Paid to Frank P. Blair, Jr., on voucher 265, account of Paymaster C. P. E. Johnson, No. 671 files, in May, 1863, from April 1st to 5th, 1863, as Brigadier General U. S. Vols.; and from April 6th to 30th, as Major General, the amount, as pay, of $409 62."

Again: "Paid to Frank P. Blair, on May 6th, 1864, by Paymaster J. P. McGrath. No. 435 files, voucher 7, from 1st to 5th of April, as Brigadier General, $48 64, and on voucher 80, same account, as Major General, from the 6th to the 30th of April, 1863, $360 94, a total of $409 58."

Those familiar with the army accounts know that in thus drawing twice over, this Vice Presidential candidate must have signed false certificates, stating on his honor that he had not done what he was actually doing. It appears on record that the sum of $409 62 was charged against Major General Frank P. Blair, in the Auditor's office. Subsequently it was ascertained that in August, 1863, he returned the amount to Paymaster Johnson.

Governor Seymour and the Rebel Commissioners.

Before Gen. Grant organized the Army of the Potomac to insure victory for it in Virginia, or Sherman made his famous march to the sea and developed the weakness of the Confederacy, many rebels and their allies in the North succeeded in impressing themselves with a belief that the Union was to be destroyed, and that the States in rebellion would become one of the family of nations. The South had no more bitter alley North than Gov. Seymour during the rebellion. His fidelity is rewarded by a nomination for the Presidency by a body largely composed of unpardoned and unrepentant rebels. Of his great sympathy with the leaders of the rebellion his conduct during the war was the best proof. That he was in direct communication with the agents of the rebel chiefs, irrefragible evidence would seem to be furnished by an affidavit made on the 2d of June, 1864, by James Sidney Hill, at one time a Captain in the 13th regiment Louisiana Volunteers, in Longstreet's corps, before J. Q. Howard, U. S. Consul at St. Johns, N. B. This affidavit the Ohio State Journal publishes, and says the fact was well known that the prime purpose that the Davis Government had in sending Commissioners to Canada was to array the State of New York in hostility to the Federal Government. Capt Hill's testimony establishes beyond question the fact that such was the confidence reposed in Horatio Seymour, then Governor of New York, that the rebel chiefs did not hesitate to address him on a subject which they knew was dear to his heart—the triumph of the Confederacy, and opened a confidential correspondence with him, as with a tried and trusted agent of their own. When reference was first made to the existence of this testimony, Gov. Seymour exhibited ungovernable rage, and not only took occasion to vouch for his own innocence, but to attack with savage emphasis all officers and agents of the Government whom he suspected of having been instrumental in making known to the State Department the nature of his relations with the Rebel Commissioners in Canada.

The Consul of the United States in New Brunswick, in 1864, had occasion to transmit to the Secretary of State information concerning the movements of the Rebel Commissioners, Clement C. Clay, and Jas. P. Holcombe, and it especially became his duty to make known to the Government whatever facts were known in the British Provinces concerning the nature of the "mission" of these notorious enemies of the United States. Application will be made to the State Department for copies of the full correspondence on this subject, which, when obtained, will be made public. Capt. Hill's affidavit, in alluding to an interview in Halifax, by the author with Clement C. Clay, says he took from a pocket in the back of his inside coat, a package containing four or five letters or dispatches. I had one of these documents in my hand; it was addressed to His Excellency Horatio Seymour, Governor of the State of New York; another was addressed to the Hon. Fernando Wood, New York; on each of these envelopes was printed, Department of State, Richmond, C. S. A., and on the envelope was written a name which I do not remember, but have no doubt it was the name of the present Secretary of State. Said Mr. Clay: I was sent on a mission to deliver those letters to Governor Seymour, but I wish they had chosen somebody else; said he, I shall stop in Montreal for a few days and then shall probably go to Ogdensburg; he said I shall see Gov. Seymour, but did not say directly that he would see him at Ogdensburg. If my (affiant's) letters (which I was expecting from New Orleans) came, he would like very much to meet me at Quebec or Montreal. I inferred from Mr. Clay's conversation that he wanted me to convey his dispatches to Gov. Seymour.

IS YOUR DISEASE RHEUMATISM?

Many persons, supposing they are suffering from this disease, have applied Linaments, Plasters and other Rheumatic Remedies without obtaining any relief, when in fact the cause of pain is a derangement of the Kidneys. These are small organs, but very important, and any obstruction or interference with its functions are indicated by pain in the back and loins, languor and weakness, difficulty in avoiding and unnatural color of the urine. A Diuretic should at once be resorted to.

DR. SARGENT'S

Diuretic or Backache Pills

Can be relied on for these purposes; they have a direct influence on the cells of the kidneys, assists nature in relieving them of any foreign particles, and stimulates them to a healthy and vigorous action.

Dr. Sargent's Backache Pills

Contain nothing injurious, being composed of entirely vegetable remedies; they do not sicken nor gripe—on the contrary they act as a gentle tonic and restores tone to the system. They are recommended by all who who have tried them.

DISASTER FOLLOWS NEGLECT.

Whoever feels the premonitory symptoms of sickness should remember that it adds the agony of self-reproach to the pangs of disease to remember that they might have been prevented.

Languor, debility and low spirits are often the precursors of terrible disorders. They indicate an immediate necessity for a tonic, and the best tonic in existence is HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Sick headache, pain in the right side, and yellowness of the whites of the eyes are unmistakable symptoms of an approaching billious attack, and, in order to ward it off, common prudence dictates the propriety of resorting to the most efficacious of all anti-billous preparations—HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Flatulence, nausea, oppression after eating, irregularity of the bowels, and a distate for exertion, denote a disordered state of the stomach, which, if neglected, is sure to culminate in chronic dyspepsia, but which may be relieved in a few hours, and entirely cured in a few days, by taking half a wineglass full of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS at regular intervals. All physicians admit that innumerable lives are sacrificed every year that might have been saved by precautionary medication. Remember that one of the principal uses of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS is to put the system in a condition to REPEL DISEASE. It recruits and restores the waning strength, and is, therefore, especially needed during the season when intense heat makes such heavy and constant drafts on the vital principle.

CURE OF FISTULA.

DR. KEYSER: I write to thank you for your kindness and scientific management of my disease, for which I called to consult you some time in January last. You will remember that I had a complication of diseases, which finally ended in a terrible fistula, which I had been advised to "let alone," on account of a harassing cough, which it was feared might fasten it on my lungs. I knew that the peculiar mode of treating diseases like mine was by a cutting operation, which, if successful at all, would naturally throw the disease upon the lungs or some other vital organ, on account of the suddenness of the cure and the immediate check to the discharge, which I believed was a salutary provision of nature to get rid of some morbid condition of the system. I feel perfectly satisfied that your method of treatment, purifying the system, and local applications to the fistulous part, must cure, if anything could, without cutting, which I find it did, and I am happy to report myself well in every particular, with sounder and better health than I have had for years. I would also add that the applications you made were almost painless, and have left me a new man, with all the energies and vigor of restored health.

Yours, gratefully, I—— C——.

PILES.

There is no medicine in use so efficacous as Dr. Roback's Blood Purifier and Blood Pills for the permanent cure of Blind or Bleeding Piles; they strike at the root of disease, thereby removing the cause.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

TEMPERANCE.

There is, perhaps, no one thing that has done so much to promote the cause of temperance as that gentle stimulating tonic, Roback's Stomach Bitters; they strengthen and invigorate without producing the ill effects of alcoholic stimulants.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

LIVER PILLS

Are Pills that have a direct and powerful action on the liver, and relieve any inactivity or congested state of that all important organ upon which depends the whole process of digestion. The importance, then, of procuring a Pill that shall have such direct action without the ill effects of mercury, is manifest to every one; such Pills are Roback's Blood Pills; they are warranted purely vegetable, and can with certainty be relied upon, and are safe at all times.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

INDIGESTION

Is but another name for Dyspepsia, and the parent of many ills. Roback's Stomach Bitters taken in wine-glass-full doses, directly after each meal, will surely effect a permanent cure. Do not take our word for it, but try them.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

NIGHT MARE

Is one of the many diseases of which Dyspepsia is the parent. To effect a cure persons should avoid hearty food at night, and take a wine glass-full of Roback's Stomach Bitters on retiring to bed.

RENOVATE.

During the Spring months it is one of the regular household duties to renovate, and, in the multiplicity of other duties one's own self is, in a great measure, overlooked; thousands of valuable lives might be prolonged, and many doubtless saved from premature graves by thoroughly renovating the system with Dr. Roback's Blood Pills, Stomach Bitters and Blood Purifier.

Sold by all Druggists Everywhere.

THE ANTI-TORNADO

RAILROAD BRIDGE

Is eminently adapted for our large western rivers, with spans of 550 feet, 80 feet above low water. It will resist the strongest winds, hurricanes, and the heaviest loaded trains will not affect it. I made the discovery on the 25th of June last. A model 6 feet long I exhibit, and give specification on its principles to all parties who take an interest in bridges, and charge 25 cents.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
THURSDAY, July 23, 1868.

Political agitation keeps up the market of gold, despite the falling off in the shipments of coin to Europe, and the advance of United States bonds in London and Frankfort. Every pretense that can be used to excite the market is resorted to, and the government credit thus depreciated. The worst of it is, that every citizen of the country has to suffer by the advance in gold. It will stimulate excessive imports, foreign manufacture, and on account of the high price of labor here, our produce of the soil cannot be afforded as cheap in foreign markets as that of other nations; therefore, our imports have to be paid for in gold; it is a quick process of impoverish even the richest country in the world.

Government bonds have again declined from ¼ to ¾ per cent., especially Seven Thirties, which are very dull, and small bonds are selling at ½ per cent. less than larger denominations on account of the increased labor in presenting them for conversion. The bond market is now manipulated almost to the same extent as the gold market. On an easy money market but from 2 to 5 per cent. margin is required to keep almost any amount of bonds over for a rise or a decline as the contract may be. The demand for investment in small amounts is still kept up, but large lots are seldom bought, otherwise than for speculation. Judging from the last bank statement, the time for a decline in governments is near at hand. Bank expansion has reached a point which was never exceeded before the moment banks commence to contract the effect will be felt all over the country at once on account of the bad practice of allowing interest on current deposits at the seaboard cities.

Stocks are lower to-day, and the most careful operators are curtailing their operations as fast as they can without endangering their investments. The North Western Railroad shares have reached their highest point for many years, but eastern shares are dull. Express shares are slightly off but steady.

Border State bonds that were reported cheap by the cliques at an advance of 15 per cent., have all lost that and more within a few days, and may be dangerous stock to hold at present prices.

Money continues easy, but business is very in active.

Closing quotations as received by Ph. R. Mertz, were as follows:

CENTRAL LIVE-STOCK MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
THURSDAY, July 23, 1868.

CATTLE.

The market was well supplied this week, but with a goodly number of buyers, prices were pretty well sustained, and particularly was this true in regard to prime fat cattle. As will be seen by reference to the report of sales, several droves of prime to extra fat steers changed hands at from 7¾ to 8¼c, gross; these figures, if anything, are a little above those of last week, though it is probable that the same grade of cattle would have brought the same prices then. Stock cattle are in fair demand, with sales at prices ranging from 3¼ to 5½. Medium cattle, or what is generally termed fairish butchers stock, sold at from 6¼ to 7. We quote the following sales:

Holmes, Lafferty & Co. sold 22 head for Doud to Black at 5,25; 40 for same to same, at 5,60; 22 for same to Maynes at 5,25; 23 for same to Aull at 5; 22 for same to Evans at 4,75; 22 for Moss to Hershy at 5,75; 7 for Campbell to McArdle at 6; 39 for Doud to Landis at 5,65; 20 for Simpson to McGarvey at 5.25; 31 for Wick to Heynas at 4,65.

SHEEP.

With an unusually light supply of Sheep this week and an average demand, the market was firm and considerably excited, and prices are from $1 to $1,50 per cwt., and even at the advance, the supply was not equal to the demand. Last week was regarded as being the hardest Sheep market of the season, and this, as well as the oppressively hot weather, tended to limit the arrivals. Last week there was but a single sale above 4c, and but very few at 4; while this week 5 to 5,40 was paid for about the same grade of Sheep. Common and inferior are not wanted, but prime fat Sheep, as we have already noted, sold with but little difficulty at full prices. The following are the sales reported.

Holmes Lafferty & Co., sold 197 for McFadden to Pearce, at 5,40; 178 for Richards to same at 3; 219 for McFadden to Pearce at 5; 93 for same to same at 5.

Smith & Talmage, sold 203 for Brook to Deitrich, at 4,85; 214 Ewing to Deitrich at 2,75.

Pearce bought 196 from Myers & Needy, at 4; 527 from S Huffman at 4; 208 from Crawford at 4,25.

Aull & Myers, bought 207 from Wilson & Hart at 3,90; 104 from Hudson at 3,25.

Barclay bought 39 from A Suinn at 3; 25 from Saitherwart at 3,60.

Pidcock & Erisman, bought 187 from Buckanan at 4; 193 from Stafford at $2,50 per head, 113 from Jas Morgan at $3,50 per head.

W Hill bough 266 from J L Rush at 355.

HOGS.

The Hog market was also a little excited on Monday in consequence of very light arrivals, and prices were sprung from a ¼ to ½ cent; since then, howevert the market has ruled easier, and the advance above noted, has been lost. We now quote at 8¾ to 10¼, for light prime heavy averages.

Singer & Imhoff, bought 150 from W Hedges at 10,30; 34 from Pollock at 9,15; 100 from Robinson at 10,50; 195 from Jas Martin at 10,50—extra; 104 from Tilden at 10,50; 57 from Stoffer at 9,50; 49 from Friend at 9,45; 150 from same at 10; 46 from E Smith at 10; 49 from Voter at 10,20.

Crouse Emerick & Co., bought 58 from Holmes, Lafferty & Co, at 9,60; 49 from same at 10,15; 98 from McLanahan at 9,50; 15 from McFadden at 10.

Holmes Lafferty & Co., sold 12 for McFadden to Crouse E & Co., at 10; 57 for Quick to same at 9,60.

Gilchrist & Co., bought 96 from Robinson at 10; 204 from Tilden at 10,50; 103 from same at 10,50.

W Hedges bought 58 from Morgan at 9,30; 65 from Martin at 9,25; 57 from Holmes, Lafferty & Co., at 9,50.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
THURSDAY, July 22, 1868.

CRUDE—The market was considerably stronger to-day, which is evident from the fact that spot oil was sold at 14, a thing that could not be accomplished yesterday. The sales were 1,000 bbls spot at 14; 1,000 bbls all August at 14; and 1,000 first half at 14¼. The cause for this apparant slight reaction is difficult to explain just now unless it was under the influence of the improved character of the advices from the East. Yesterday oil was offered at 14, without finding buyers, while to-day it sold at that figure, which is sufficient to convince any one that the market was stronger. The sales for future delivery, also, indicate a slight advance, though it is not probable that any considerable amount could have been sold at the improvement.

REFINED—The market for bonded oil was also somewhat more active and considerably stronger to-day, the sales, in the aggregate, being larger than during any preceding day this week, and prices also ruled a shade higher. July, for which 33½c was the best offer that could be obtained yesterday, sold readily to-day at 34c, and the later months sold at from 34½ to 34¾. Sales 500 each for last half of September and October at 34¾; 3,000, in lots, for July, at 34c; 500 September, 500 October, 500 November, and 500 December, all at 34½c.

ARRIVALS—The arrivals of oil reported to-day were as follows:

Leech & Wood..	480	D. M. Edgerton.	80

Marriage by Wholesale.

It is related of Du Chaillu, the African explorer and savant, that at an African village, on his travels, he observed the gray-beards in frequent and earnest conversation. He watched them with some anxiety, as he feared they meant to rob him. At last, one fine afternoon, he saw a large body of people approaching. He took out his spy glass and saw that they were women. There were between six and seven hundred of them, headed by the old patriarchs of the village. They came up and made a circle around him. Then began a palaver.

Venerable man and brother No. 1, was orator of the day. His costume showed an entire ignorance of the origin of the tailor's trade or a total disbelief in the doctrine of the Fall. He had only an old overcoat on—nothing else or less. The women wore about a yard and a half of grass cloth each, and their appearance suggested the idea of an approaching rehearsal of the Black Crook.

"We know, Aguizi (spirit), that you are a good spirit; we wish you to stay among us forever."

And then was poured out a speech, the practical application of which was that they had made up their mind to adopt him, and had brought all the young women of their tribe before him in order that he might select a wife.

The women, by their acclamations, showed a perfect willingness to become the bosom friend of the Aguizi, who made beads and looking glasses, and had flaming red caps among his treasures.

Du Chaillu was too much of a Frenchman to reject in a surly tone this too generous proposition. He rose and replied that he feared he must decline the offer—really he was afraid that he must do it—because he came as a messenger of good will—to make people happy—and if all these charming creatures were willing that he should select one of them as a wife, and he did so, it would make the others unhappy. He could not do that. No, he could not do that.

The gray-beards retired for consultation, and after a short but lively debate, came back to the bashful white lover, who was still surrounded by the swarm of maidens.

"We have seen it, Chaillu," said the venerable orator. "You spoke what was true. If you take one, the rest would be unhappy. Take them all!"

Decay of Stone Buildings in Cities.

It has frequently been observed that the surfaces of various kinds of stones, especially the limestones, when used for building purposes in cities, in a short time become dimmed and discolored, and at no distant period show unmistakable signs of decay. This is more especially the case where coal is used in the largest quantity, and a careful examination has shown that it is due mainly to the large quantity of sulphuric acid liberated by the combustion of this substance, amounting to seventy pounds or more for each ton of even the purest quality. This acid forms sulphates, and it is on magnesian limestones, or dolomites, that the effects are most marked, the resulting sulphate of magnesia being very evident in the scrapings of the surface. The carved portions of the stone, and those which arrest the dirt and dust, suffer most, from holding longer in contact with the stone the acidulated moisture of the air. The resulting disintegration of the stone is also facilitated by the crystallization of the sulphates within its pores.

A careful consideration of the chemical processes involved has led to the use of certain substances for the purpose of preventing the combinations mentioned, and, as it would seem, with much success. An aqueous solution of superphosphate of lime was applied to the surface of the cleaned stone, either by brushing or immersion, and produced an insoluble exterior. The cost of the material is but trifling, a gallon of the solution furnishing two coats to about 300 square feet of Caen or Portland stone. It should not contain any appreciable quantity of sulphuric acid. For treatment of dolomites or magnesian limestones, baryta is added to the hardening salt, for the purpose of destroying any sulphate of magnesia already formed, giving rise to the very insoluble sulphate of baryta. When the superphosphate of lime is applied to the fresh surface of limestone, it has been found to add nearly fifty per cent. to the strength; at least this was the case with the cubes of stone on which the experiment was conducted.

A Relic of Marie Antoinette.

An antique court dress worn by Marie Antoinette, now in possession of the Fenian Volunteer office, in Buffalo, is attracting much attention. The dress is of superb brocade silk, elaborately embroidered, with immense train of the same rich material. The dress was recently purchased of Rev. C. F. Robertson, of Malone, New York, administrator of the estate of the late Rev. Eleazer Williams, the reputed son of Marie Antoinette.

It was originally obtained by an attache of the American Embassy at Paris, for Mrs. Edward Clarke, of Northampton, and on the return of the latter to this country in 1851, was presented to Mr. Williams, she being fully convinced that he was the genuine son of the unfortunate Marie. Efforts are being made to induce James McCarroll, editor of the Volunteer, to permit the dress to be exhibited in public. The authenticity of this historical relic is beyond question.

The very grave objections to the use of the foot in the propulsion of sewing machines on the part of females, have rendered some other motor desirable. This is readily to be had where large numbers of machines are employed in the same building, or where steam or water power can readily be had; but in private families, the only alternative is the use of the hand for the purpose, which, of course, is a great practical inconvenience. A French mechanician, M. Cazal, has recently completed an electro magnetic attachment to the sewing machine, which, at small expense, affords sufficient power to propel it; and it is probable that before long the apparatus in question, or one of similar character, will come generally into use. We recommend the idea to the consideration of our American sewing machine establishments.

Late Buenos Ayres papers state that notwithstanding the stubbornness displayed by the Paraguayans, Humaita cannot hold out much longer. The garrison seems already reduced to severe straits, and their companions at Timbo, above Humaita, tried unsuccessfully the ingenious expedient of sending quarters of meat tied to small rafts, which they set floating down the river, most of which have been picked up by the allies, the meat being already in a state of putrefaction.

The National Association of School Superintendents will hold its annual Convention at Nashville, Tenn., August 17th; the American Normal School Association, August 18th, and the National Teachers' Association, August 19, 20 and 21. The programmes of the several Associations give promise of interesting and important meetings.

CLIPPINGS.

A number of ladies and gentlemen were recently much annoyed in Paris by the receipt of anonymous letters filled with every conceivable scurrility and obscenity. They were accused by this writer of committing every crime—of being the vilest of the vile. Three or four of those thus abused entered into compact to discover the writer, who, after much research, was found to be an old maid of great wealth and noble family, and who had always borne the reputation of being morbidly virtuous and austerely pious. The revenge taken by the party was very singular. They published all the letters, with all their horrors, leaving out the names of those to whom they were addressed, but giving that of the writer!

Goldwin Smith was born in 1823, at Reading, England, where his father was a physician. He was educated at Eton and at Christ Church and Magdalen College, Oxford. He graduated in 1845, carrying off some of the most important scholarships and prizes, and was soon after elected a Fellow in University College, in which he became a tutor. Like many English gentlemen of education, he was called to the bar, but never practiced. He was Secretary to the two Oxford Commissions, and was a member of the Education Commission of 1859. In 1866 he resigned the Professorship of History at Oxford, which he had held for some time. Goldwin Smith has written largely during the last few years, his lectures on Modern History and on the Study of History being best known. His latest work was a historical study on the three English statesmen, Pym, Cromwell and Pitt. He has written besides as a journalist, and has contributed to various literary publications. He is one of the most liberal of English scholars, and all his writings are fraught with the spirit of liberty.

At Akron, Ohio, a few days ago, two persons of spiritual faith married themselves, with a little aid from the Mayor, by repeating the following formula: "In the presence of our spirit and earth friends, I take Electa A. Sanford, whom I hold by the right hand, to be my lawful wife, hoping by kindness and affection to be to her a faithful and loving husband, while in the earth form." The lady then repeated: "In the presence of our spirit and earth friends, I take Abel Underwood, whom I hold by the right hand, to be my lawful husband, hoping by kindness and affection to be to him a loving and faithful wife, while in the earth form." The Mayor then said: "Having pledged your marital vows in presence of these witnesses and of the world, I now, in the name and by the authority of the State of Ohio, pronounce you husband and wife." The Beacon says they would have no form of ceremony in which the word death occurred.

Making it Plain.—The preacher at the African Church at Frankford, recently, was telling his congregation about Moses crossing the Red Sea; and to make his description quite plain, illustrated it as follows: "S'pose you's the children of Israel, and I's Moses; Jarsey is the Wilderness, and Bridesburg the Promised Land. Well, I brings you to de ribber, and waves my hand up towards Tacony, and de waters roll backward toward Philadelphy, and we all goes over widout gettin' wet. When de las' pickininny gets over I waves my hand towards Philadelphy, and I waves my hand towards Tacony, and de water r-o-l-l-s back from toward Tacony—and dey was fishn' for shad dere de nex' mornin'!"

It is related that Rev. Edward Wolfe, the writer of the memorable and popular lines on the death of Sir John Moore, who fell at Corunna, Spain, was a posthumous child of his mother—that is, he was born after the supposed death of his mother and her burial. The story runs, that after she had lain some time in the vault chosen for burial place, some sacrilegious wretches, knowing that her jewelry had not been removed from her person, attempted to rob her in the grave. They did so, so violently that in tearing the rings from her fingers, they caused the blood to flow, which revived her, and she was subsequently rescued from the grave, and afterwards bore the author of the aforesaid lines.

The Benai Berith, or Sons of the League, a secret order existing among the Israelites, is now holding a National Convention in the city of New York. It has existed in this country about twenty-five years, and comprises five grand lodges and 115 local lodges, with a membership exceeding 12,000. The headquarters of the grand lodges are as follows: 1st, New York City; 2d, Cincinnati, 3d, Philadelphia; 4th, San Francisco; 5th, Baltimore. The Order has an Orphans' Home at Cleveland, which has been provided for by the quarterly payments of members. It is proposed also to erect a home for orphans and other indigent persons in this State.

In one of the pistol galleries on the Paris Boulevard, the favorite target is an egg on a water fountain, which with the jet rises and falls capriciously as woman's humor. The egg is a mere shell, that it may be more docile to the fluctuations of the water. The owner of the shooting gallery procures these egg-shells from a neighboring pastry-cook, at the price of four francs the hundred. The cook makes his apprentices thrust a needle-like tube through the shell and suck the egg, emptying their mouths in a basin as fast as they are filled. These eggs are then used in making pastry, and the shells are sold.

The Lake Superior copper region is reported to have produced last year 11,735 tons and 552 pounds. In 1866, the product was 10,375 tons and 1,188 pounds, and the entire product from 1845 to the end of 1867 was 99,037 tons 1,396 pounds. The total assessments called in by the mining companies of that region since their organization amount to $16,250,500. The dividends declared during the same time amount to $5,980,000. The assessments made in 1867 by twenty-eight companies were $2,335,000; the dividends declared in that year were $110,000, all but two companies, one of which has divided $40,000 the present year.

640 MILES

OF THE

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD

Are now finished and in operation. Sixty miles of track have been laid this spring, and the work along the whole line between the Atlantic and Pacific States is being pushed forward more rapidly than ever before. More than twenty thousand men are employed, and it is not impossible that the entire track, from Omaha to Sacramento, will be finished in 1869 instead of 1870. The means provided are ample, and all that energy, men and money can do to secure the completion of this

GREAT NATIONAL WORK,

At the earliest possible day, will be done.

The UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY receive:

I.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right of way, and all necessary timber and other materials found along the line of its operations.

II.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, taken in alternate sections on each side of its road. This is an absolute donation, and will be a source of large revenue in the future.

III.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of United States Thirty-year Bonds, amounting to from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, according to the difficulties to be surmounted on the various sections to be built. The Government takes a second mortgage as security, and it is expected that not only the interest, but the principal amount may be paid in services rendered by the Company in transporting troops, mails, &c. The interest is now much more than paid in this way, besides securing a great saving in time and money to the Government.

IV.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right to issue its own FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS, to aid in building the road, to the same amount as the U. S. Bonds, issued for the same purpose, and no more. The Government permits the Trustees for the First Mortgage Bondholders to deliver the Bonds to the Company only as the road is completed, and after it has been examined by United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first-class Railroad, laid with a heavy T rail, and completely supplied with depots, stations, turnouts, car-shops, locomotives, cars, &c.

V.—A CAPITAL STOCK SUBSCRIPTION from the stockholders, of which OVER EIGHT MILLION DOLLARS have been paid in upon the work already done, and which will be increased as the wants of the Company require.

VI.—NET CASH EARNINGS on its Way Business, that already amount to MORE THAN THE INTEREST on the First Mortgage Bonds. These earnings are no indication of the vast through business that must follow the opening of the line to the Pacific, but they certainly prove that upon such a property, costing nearly three times their amount, ARE SECURE BEYOND ANY CONTINGENCY.

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS

The Company have abundant means in their treasury, and make no appeal to the public to purchase their Bonds, as the daily subscriptions are entirely satisfactory; but they submit that, for entire security and liberal returns, there is certainly no better investment in the market.

The Union Pacific Bonds are for $1,000 each, and have coupons attached. They have thirty years to run, and bear annual interest, payable on the first days of January and July, at the Company's Office in the City of New York, at the rate of six per cent. in gold. The Principal is payable in gold at maturity. The price is 102. At the present rate of gold, these bonds pay an annual income on their cost of

NEARLY NINE PER CENT.

The Company reserve the right to advance the price of their bonds to a rate above par at any time, and will not fill any orders or receive any subscriptions on which the money has not been actually paid at the Company's office before the time of such advance.

Parties subscribing will remit the par value of the bonds and the accrued interest in currency at the rate of six per cent. per annum, from the date on which the last coupon was paid. Subscriptions will be received in Pittsburgh by

JAMES T. BRADY & Co., corner of Wood and Fourth Streets;

HART, CAUGHEY & Co., corner of Wood and Third Streets;

AND IN NEW YORK

At the Company's Office, No. 20 Nassau Street, and by

JOHN J. CISCO & SON, Bankers, No. 59 Wall Street, and by the Company's advertised agents throughout the United States.

Remittances should be made in drafts or other funds par in New York, and the Bonds will be sent free of charge by return express. Parties subscribing through local agents, will look to them for their safe delivery.

A PAMPHLET AND MAP FOR 1868 has just been published by the Company, giving fuller information than is possible in an advertisement, respecting the Progress of the Work, the Resources of the Country traversed by the Road, the Means for Construction, and the Value of the Bonds, which will be sent free on application at the Company's offices, or to any of the advertised agents.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Daily Prayer Meeting.—From 12 M. to 12:30 o'clock at the Methodist Church, Fifth street, next door to GAZETTE office.

Will Meet This Evening.—The Street Committee will meet this evening, at half past seven o'clock.

Committed.—J. A. Webber, charged with false pretense, on oath of Louis Siegrist, was arrested yesterday and committed in default of $500 bail, by Alderman McMasters.

Light Travel.—The travel on the different railroads leading from Pittsburgh has been remarkably light for about a week past. Perhaps the warm weather has something to do with this.

Struck with a Broomstick.—Kate Wurth alleges that Mary Emyl struck her two or three times over the head with a broomstick, yesterday. Alderman Taylor issued a warrant for the arrest of Mary.

G. A. R.—Members of Post 35, and also of other Posts, are desired to meet this afternoon at three o'clock, at the Soldiers' League Rooms, Lacock street, Allegheny, for the purpose of attending the funeral of Comrade William Irwin.

Surety.—Annie Neely made information yesterday, before Alderman McMasters, against Micheal O'Brien, alleging that he came into her house and used very threatening language. The parties reside on Pine street. A warrant was issued.

Foot Cut.—A lad named Conkey, residing in Splane's court, off Fifth street, had his foot badly cut yesterday by treading on a piece of glass in front of Haggerty's tobacco store. The wound bled profusely, and it was with some difficulty that the flow of blood was stopped.

Disorderly.—Eliza Smithers it is alleged was acting in a very disorderly manner yesterday, and Susan Grayson made information before Alderman Thomas charging her with disorderly conduct. The parties are "ladies of color." A warrant was issued for the arrest of Eliza.

Life in Danger.—Mary McIntyre appeared before Alderman Taylor yesterday and made information against Mrs. Dolahen for surety of the peace, alleging that the defendent threatened to take her life. A warrant was issued, and upon searching for the lady she was found in jail, having been placed there upon some other information.

Felonious Assault and Battery.—Michael Dowlin made information before Alderman Thomas yesterday, charging John Schutz with felonious assault and battery. The parties reside at Four Mile Run, and the prosecutor alleges that the accused struck him with a "billy," without any provocation. Schutz was arrested and after a hearing held to bail for his appearance at Court.

False Pretence.—R. E. Walsh made information before the Mayor yesterday charging one Freil with obtaining goods under false pretence. The prosecutor is one of the firm of M. & R. Walsh, grocers, in South Pittsburgh, and he alleges that the accused, by means of false representations, obtained goods from the firm to the amount of thirteen dollars and fifty cents. A warrant was issued for the arrest of Freil.

Threatenings.—Julia Scahill made information before Alderman McMasters yesterday against James Booth for surety of the peace. She alleges that Booth came to her house in the Thirteenth ward, during the absence of her husband, on Wednesday night, and demanded admittance, which being refused, he threatened to procure a hose and send a stream of water into the place, and also threatened her with bodily harm. Warrant issued.

Died of His Injuries—Coroner's Inquest.—James Dolan, son of Michael Dolan, residing on Pennsylvania avenue, who was injured Wednesday evening by a car on the Panhandle Railroad passing over his leg, died of his injuries yesterday morning. The Coroner held an inquest yesterday and several witnesses were examined. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death, and recommended the Company to place a watchman at the Fourth street crossing, where the accident occurred.

The Grant Club, First Ward, Allegheny, have a lofty Republican pole and a commodious stand for speakers at their headquarters at the foot of Marion avenue. The first mass gathering of the Republican hosts is advertised to come off on Saturday evening, the 25th inst. Besides plenty of speakers and music, an immense flag has been provided and will stream from their fine old pole on the coming occasion. Let the beginning of the fight betoken the glorious victory to be achieved in October and November.

To Be Continued.—The Festival of the Liberty street M. E. Church (corner of Liberty and Hay) is to be continued today and this evening. Between one and two hundred persons took dinner yesterday. To-day the same excellent fare will be served, at the same low price. What, with the delightful rooms of the church, the many delicacies provided and the kind attention of all concerned in this Festival, no pleasanter place can be found to spend the evening. Dinner from twelve o'clock to three. Supper from seven o'clock to ten.

Serious Accident.—On Wednesday evening, between five and six o'clock, Frederick Hagerman, employed at Dilworth's Saw Mill, in the Fifth ward, Allegheny, was seriously injured by falling from a board pile. It seems that he was engaged in piling lumber, and while reaching forward to take hold of a board, which was being handed to him, he missed his hold, and losing balance fell from the top of the pile to the ground, fracturing his skull and suffering other serious injuries. He is attended by Dr. P. W. Herron, and is in a very critical condition.

Accident During the Storm.

Last evening during the storm a temporary frame wall erected in the rear of Paulson's hat store, for the purpose of closing the opening made by tearing away the houses on Fourth street, was blown down, falling on two men who were engaged in laying the foundations for the new buildings. One of the men, Daniel Boyle, residing on Poplar alley, Third ward, had the ribs in the left side broken and was otherwise slightly injured. He was attended by Dr. LeMoyne, who thinks that he will recover. The name of the other is William Haff. His injuries are of a trifling character, and after an hour or two he was able to walk around. He resides in Spring alley, Ninth ward.

Larceny.

Wednesday evening Matthew Crowley and John Hughes, boys between twelve and fourteen years of age, it is alleged entered the store of W. H. Ackerman, on Wylie street, and took therefrom a silver watch, valued at fifteen dollars, and a pocket-book containing thirty-four dollars. The articles stolen, it appears, were in a box which was kept behind the counter, and during the temporary absence of the clerk the boys entered the store, picked up the box and made off with it. The box was found yesterday morning by Street Commissioner Hunter in the rear of the new German Lutheran Church, on High street, but the pocket-book and watch had been taken out. Information was made before the Mayor charging the boys named with larceny and a warrant issued for their arrest. Two boys were arrested, but it appeared they were not the guilty ones, and they were consequently discharged.

REPORT OF POLICE COMMITTEE.

Mr. English, Chairman of the Police Committee, submitted the following report:

Gentlemen:—Your Committee on Police would respectfully report that owing to the great distance that intervenes between the eastern and western sections of the city and the Mayor's Office, much time is lost by policemen when an arrest is made in bringing the prisoner to the office, and in order to avoid this, we would offer the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the Controller be and is hereby authorized to advertise and receive proposals for the erection of a building of twelve by sixteen feet, one story high, and consisting of two apartments, on the triangular lot between Ohio, Chestnut and Liberty streets, in the Fourth ward, to be used as a lockup.

Resolved, That a lockup be constructed in the Engine House about being built in the Sixth ward.

Your Committee, after due consideration thereof, would recommend the adoption of the accompanying ordinances relating to cattle, hogs, &c., running at large; the obstruction of sidewalks; the erection of signs and awnings, and relating to night soilers.

The Committee recommend the adoption of an ordinance providing for the increase of the police force, by adding two more to the present number, in order to supply the Eighth ward.

After considerable discussion, the resolutions passed to a vote, when the Chair decided that they were lost.

Mr. English called for a division, which resulted in the defeat of the resolutions by a vote of 9 to 6.

The ordinance incaeasing the police force from 25 to 27 men was then taken up and adopted, and on a third reading passed finally.

The ordinance relating to awnings, referred to in the report of the Police Committee, was adopted.

The ordinance prohibiting the erection of signs at a less heighth than nine feet and from projecting a greater distance than three feet over the sidewalk, was adopted.

The ordinance prohibiting the obstruction of sidewalks by market and show stands, was adopted.

An ordinance prohibiting cattle, horses, &c., from running at large was taken up and created considerable discussion, and a vote being taken the ordinance was defeated.

An ordinance preventing hogs from running at large was next taken up and adopted.

An ordinance providing that a boat shall be provided for the reception of the contents of the carts of night soilers was adopted, and on a third reading passed finally.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON COMMON GROUNDS.

Mr. Phillips, from the Committee on Common Grounds, submitted the report of said Committee:

The report states that the Committee had a conference with Mr. T. D. Messler, of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company, relative to the construction of a wall along the line of said road at certain points in the city, and that he stated that the company refused to do anything in the matter.

The report was referred to the Park Committee.

REPORT OF THE RAILROAD COMMITTEE.

Mr. Faulkner, Chairman of the Railroad Committee, submitted the following report:

GENTLEMEN—Your Committee on Railroads respectfully report that the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway Co. being about to build the walls for the protection of the banks formed by the excavation for the railroad through Seminary Hill, pursuant to agreement with the city, desire that the height to which they will be required to build these walls shall be determined. Your Committee, with this object in view, visited the ground, and after a careful observation would recommend the adoption of the following resolution, specifying the heighth of the walls, &c.:

Resolved, That the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railway Company be and they are hereby required to erect, set up and maintain a good and efficient stone wall on the eastern side of so much of the excavation made through Seminary Hill for the railroad as extends from Marshall to Cliff streets, the said wall to be twelve feet high above the level of the track of said Railroad Company at Cliff street and extending thence by a regular grade to Marshall street, where the said wall shall be on a level with the present grade of said Marshall street.

Resolved, That when said railroad company shall have fully complied with the provisions of the foregoing resolution, such compliance shall be deemed as fullfilling the terms of their agreement with the city relative to building walls on the sides of the way or passage granted to them by the city in so far as the same relates to the construction of a wall on the eastern side of so much of the said way or passage as lies between Marshall and Cliff street.

The report was accepted and the resolutions adopted.

REPORT OF THE WATER COMMITTEE.

Mr. Smith, Chairman of the Water Committee, submitted the report of that Committee.

The Committee states that the short supply of water in the Second and Third wards had been under consideration, and the Committee recommend that a main pipe be laid from the basin to connect with the main pipe on Jackson street, and the repair of the basin. The Committee also recommend the extension of the outlet main pipe from the basin, in order to prevent obstruction by sand, &c., and submit a resolution authorizing the same.

The report was accepted.

Mr. A. D. Smith moved that the resolution be referred to the Water and Finance Committee. Adopted.

THE COMMON GROUNDS.

Mr. English, from the Park Commission, submitted a communication from the Commission recommending the vacation of that portion of Sandusky street covering the North Commons, accompanied by a resolution authorizing the City Solicitor to take the necessary steps to have the street vacated.

Mr. Hall moved the acceptance of the communication and the adoption of the resolution.

Mr. Brown moved to amend by referring the matter to the Street Committee.

The amendment of Mr. Brown was withdrawn, and the question recurred on the original motion, which resulted in the defeat of the resolution.

The plan and specifications for the construction of Montgomery avenue sewer, adopted in Select Council, was returned from Common Council with an amendment increasing the size of the sewer six inches in diameter. Select Council adhered to their former action, and asked a Committee of Conference, and the Chair appointed Messrs. Hall and English. In C. C. Messrs. Tate, Hanna and Hastings were appointed.

The Committee recommended that Common Council concur with Select in the adoption of the plan and specifications. The report was not sustained in Common Council.

On motion of Mr. A. D. Smith, Select Council adhered to its former action, and asked Common Council to meet them in joint session, to discuss the matter. The motion was adopted, and the invitation accepted by Common Council.

Select Council then adjourned to Common Council Chamber.

Common Council.

At eight o'clock Council came to order, and on motion of Mr. Tate, in the absence of President Slagle, Mr. McNeill took the chair.

At the call of the roll the following members answered to their names:

Messrs. Blair, Cutler, Clark, Dunham, Eyster, Froetzinger, Hanna, Hastings, Hochuly, Kennedy, Ley, Megraw, Mayer, McNeill, Ober, Reynolds, Reed, Saints, Tate, Voegtly and Warner.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved.

RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. Tate offered a resolution instructing the City Engineer to report a profile of grade of Grant avenue from Braddock street to Washington avenue. Adopted.

COMMUNICATION.

Mr. Hanna, a communication from Columbus Coleman in regard to the building of the wall by the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company along the line of his property according to contract. Referred to the Committee on Railroads.

SANDUSKY STREET.

Mr. Voeghtly, a remonstrance against the closing of Sandusky street as proposed by the Park Improvements. Referred to the Committee.

NUISANCE.

Mr. Hastings, a resolution instructing the Mayor to enquire into the cause of the nuisances in the shape of an abominable smell in the Seventh ward. Adopted.

PETITION FOR WATER.

Mr. Hanna, a petition from the citizens on Corry and Killbuck streets, in the First ward, asking for the laying of water pipe. Referred to Water Committee.

REPORT OF THE MARKET COMMITTEE.

Mr. Hanna, Chairman of the Market Committee, presented the following report:

GENTLEMEN—Your Committee on Markets, owing to the crowded condition of our market house and the urgent necessity for further market accommodations, would respectfully recommend the erection of another market building. If this project meets with the favorable consideration of Councils we would ask for instructions to report the matter in the proper shape for Councils to take the necessary action for the erection of the building.

Report accepted and Committee instructed as requested.

PETITION FOR GAS LAMPS.

Mr. Hanna, petition from citizens of the Sixth ward asking for the construction of gas lamps in said ward. Referred to Committee on Gas.

FULTON STREET.

Ma. Kennedy, a resolution asking for the immediate completion of the grading and paving of Fulton street, in the Fifth ward, according to contract. Adopted.

A GONG WANTED.

Mr. Clark, a resolution instructing the Committee on Fire Engines to purchase a gong for the Good Will Hose Company in the Sixth ward. S. C. non-concurred and referred the petition to the Committee on Engines. C. C. receded and concurred in action of S. C.

PETITION FOR GRADING.

Mr. Ley, a petition for grading of the Troy Hill road to Perry street. Referred to Committee on Streets.

GRANT AVENUE.

Mr. Kennedy: a resolution instructing the City Controller to receive proposals for the grading and paving of Grant avenue, from Braddock street to Washington avenue.

COAL WANTED.

Mr. Hanna: a resolution instructing the City Controller to advertise for bids for coal for city offices. Adopted.

POLICE IN FIFTH AND SIXTH WARDS.

Mr. Mayer, a resolution instructing the Mayor to place two extra policemen on duty in the Fifth and Sixth wards. Referred to Police Committee.

Joint Session.

At the request of Select Council, Councils met in joint session to consider the question of the adoption of the plans and specifications for the construction of the Montgomery Avenue sewer.

On motion of Mr. English Mr. Myler, Chairman of the Street Committee, was requested to explain why the dimension of the sewer was so small.

Mr. Myler explained that the amount of water which would in all probability ever be required to be carried off by the sewer would not require greater capacity and the increase in size would cost from ten to fifteen thousand dollars more.

Mr. Magraw asked whether the gentleman had ever inquired of the Engineer or considered in his estimates the velocity of the fall of water.

Mr. McBrier said the Engineer had considered this point, and made his estimates accordingly.

Mr. Megraw said all the sewers built thus far in Allegheny had been failures, on account of the smallness of their calibre.

Mr. McBrier thought there was enough tax on the people, without putting anything additional upon them.

After some further discussion the Joint Session adjourned.

Common Council was then called to order by the Chairman.

Mr. Megraw moved to adjourn.

The yeas and nays were called for, and the motion was decided in the affirmative by a vote of nine to eight.

Councils adjourned.

Pittsburgh Male and Female Seminary.

Notwithstanding our city can boast of several institutions of learning of a very superior character, it is a self evident fact we are sadly deficient in this respect, and that many other cities of less pretentious mien are far in advance of us. Our institutions, what few we have, are equal to any in the country, but we want more of them. Hundreds of persons are compelled to send their children to schools out of the city at a heavy expense, simply because it is impossible to get them into a school at home where they could have them under their immediate care, and any move toward the establishment of another first class seminary in the city will be welcomed by a large class of our citizens. At the solicitation of many of the friends of education, Prof. H. I. Gourly has been induced to open a Seminary for boys and girls at Nos. 22 and 24 Fifth street, where pupils may acquire a thorough knowledge of all or any of the branches usually taught in a select school, including the higher branches of mathematics, the classics, and the German and French languages. The first term of this institution will commence on the first Monday of September, and close on the last Friday of June. Professor Gourley is held in high esteem by all who know him, and the following card, signed by the City Superintendent and most of the Principals of city schools, is a sufficient endorsement of his qualifications as an educator:

Knowing Prof. H. I. Gourley to be an earnest, energetic and successful teacher as well as a gentleman and scholar, we heartily commend him, and the seminary which he is about to open, to the favor and patronage of the people.

George J. Luckey, Superintendent of the Pittsburgh Public Schools. Principals of City Schools—G. N. Monro, First ward; J. N. Stephenson, Third and Tenth wards; J. M. Logan, Fourth ward; Andrew Burtt, Fifth ward; L. H. Eaton, Eighth ward; R. H. Kelly, Thirteenth ward; J. P. Andrews, Fourteenth ward; L. R. Greves, Twenty-second ward; J. B. Irvine, Twenty-third ward; James R. D. Meads, Second ward; David Dennison, (former) Third ward; J. A. Snodgrass, Hebrew School, Pittsburgh; R. M. Sloan, Editor of the "School Casket," Pittsburgh; Fulton Phillips, Principal Fourth ward Public Schools, Allegheny; James E. Stevenson, (former) Principal Second ward Public Schools, Allegheny.

Supposed Burglar Arrested—Officer Shot.

Wednesday evening one of the Allegheny night watchmen observed a stranger in the lower part of the Fourth ward, of that city, whose movements were of a rather suspicious nature, and he communicated the fact at the Mayor's office, when Chief of Police Bowden and officer William Green took the matter in hand, and about four o'clock yesterday morning started out in pursuit of the suspected individual. In the vicinity of Union avenue the officers noticed a suspicious character and halted him. He was very evasive and unsatisfactory, refusing to give any account of himself or of his doings. Officer Green told him he would arrest him if he would not give them satisfaction. He finally stated that he boarded with Mrs. Walters, and consented to show the officer where that lady lived, if he would accompany him, which Mr. Green consented to do. He led off towards Ohio street and along that thoroughfare in the direction of Chestnut street, Chief Bowden returning to the office. Reaching Chestnut street he told the officer that he lived in Pittsburgh. The officer refused to accompany him and proceeded to arrest him, but by a dexterous movement the fellow got a few feet distant from the officer, drew a revolver, and threatened to shoot him if he followed, starting on a run towards Duquesne borough. Mr. Green followed, although having no weapon in his possession. The fellow turned and fired at the officer, the ball striking him in the arm, glancing, and finally lodging in the shoulder. The firing attracted the attention of Mr. Moul, in Duquesne borough, who came to the assistance of Mr. G. and together followed the would-be assassin. They finally overtook him in the vicinity of the coke ovens, Duquesne borough, and brought him to the lock-up. He gave his name as George Leslie. A species of burglar's tool called "outsiders" was found in the vicinity of Union avenue, supposed to have been dropped by him. Green's wound is an exceedingly painful one, but not serious. Leslie will have a hearing this morning.

Saved His Money.

Wednesday evening John Knox, a gentleman from the rural districts, came to the city by the way of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and shortly after his arrival managed to get very drunk. He had in his possession about five hundred dollars in money, a watch, and other valuables, which he foolishly exhibited in the several drinking saloons he visited. Officer Cupples, who was on duty in the vicinity of the depot, noticed him, and also observed that he was closely followed by three of the "land sharks" who infest that locality, to the great annoyance and inconvenience of the traveling public, obtaining money in any way they can get it. He called the attention of a brother officer to Knox, and they determined to watch the proceedings of the thieves who were following him, and, if possible, "pull" them. They followed their victim for a considerable time, and whenever an opportunity offered induced him to drink, and by twelve o'clock he was beastly drunk. He staggered to Spring alley, in the rear of a coffin factory, and, finding his "load" too heavy, laid himself down to rest. He was no sooner down than the "sharks," who had been following him, were at his side, and were about to "go through" his pockets when the officers, who had been watching them, made their appearance, and the "sharks" beat a hasty retreat before having accomplished their object. Knox was taken in charge by the officers, who conducted him to the Rush House, where he was induced to deposit his money and valuables, which were returned to him the next morning, when he left for his country home, thoroughly disgusted with city customs.

Aggravated Assault.

James Kelly made information before Alderman McMasters yesterday against Albert Fecker for aggravated assault and battery. It is alleged that Fecker was exposing his person on the corner of Seventh and Webster streets, when some boys threw a quantity of water upon him. He thinking it was done by a woman named Johanna Hollem, who was washing in a yard near by, picked up brick and threw it at her inflicting a very serious wound on the back of the head. It is feared that serious consequences may result, as the woman is in a very delicate condition of health. Fecker was arrested and committed to jail. The information was made against him by Mr. Kelly, who was a witness of the whole affair.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

Pleasantville.

Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.

PLEASANTVILLE, July 22, 1868.

In the oil regions no town is safe. Once Titusville was the great metropolis of grease, and square feet of land sold at the most astonishing of prices; but it was not long before Pithole loomed up and the rush went off in that direction to such an extent that a large town was built up in almost no time, and the Chase House, an $80,000 hotel, was among the most thronged of all the caravansaries in the country. The bubble burst, prices went down, bogus oil companies went up, and the excitement subsided. Time, however, has restored some of the lost confidence; but Pithole cannot revive. Pleasantville is now the headquarters of oildom. The constant discoveries of oil in this neighborhood have wrought so much excitement that the town has become a bustling city and the Chase House is being moved here from Pithole. The territory developed in and about this neighborhood is yielding about 1,328 barrels per day; there are about twenty-five wells being pumped, eight of which are each yielding seventy-five barrels or upwards daily; some of these have been producing since 1864 and 1865, but most of them have been put down this year. Since December, 1867, there has been in no instance a failure, and confidence is universal. The oil is of medium gravity and is what is technically known as black oil. The Titusville Pipe Company transports nearly all of the oil from here to Titusville, from whence it goes by rail to Oil City or eastward by the Empire Transportation Company.

Seven daily stages give us communication with Titusville, and they always come in full. We have but one hotel, and where the people board and lodge is a mystery; the Chase House will not be ready before the first of August; the Pithole Opera House is to be removed here immediately. A notable circumstance is the order and excellent municipal government, and there is but one bar in the place.

The whole trade is much more hopeful and great activity prevails all over the oil regions. Nor is Pleasantville the only promising district. The new oil field of Charley Run, in the neighborhood of Oil City, is by many considered quite as good; some twenty-five or thirty wells have been commenced and are going down energetically. A short time is necessary to prove its good qualities or lack of them, but until some new and more exhaustive method of mining is discovered the life of oil fields is comparatively short, and the cities of oildom must be ephemeral. Public Fountains.

Through the medium of the public prints we notice that there has been a public fountain erected on the hill! The Lord be praised that there is one righteous man in the cities at least. Through the same happy medium we propose to suggest where and how another man may win immortality for himself while benefitting mankind, and we hasten to do it. For several hundred years at the base of Boyd's Hill, (so called now) perhaps a mile and a half from the Point, on the banks of the Monongahela, there has been a never failing spring, and cotemporaneous possibly with the first cabin built on the Flat was an iron pipe which—until lately—carried for these hundred years, as well as it could, a supply of healthful beverage for the teamsters and others who travel that route. The march of improvement has set itself in that direction, and in grauing Second street the pipe was removed, and neither it nor a substitute has been replaced. And this is the place, in my mind, where a memorial work might be erected. How, will readily suggest itself to the anxious person. Let me humbly say to him, don't forget the many hundred horses, each with his ton, that are driven past that point daily. Keep them in your generous mind.

Another consideration let me offer and my plea is finished. Consolidation will be up again; and many of us want to be hitched, and would have you use ail lawful means to accomplish your purpose. Although we are honest, hard working people, we, too, have our price, and who knows how many of us might be bought by the seemingly trifling thing of a cup of cold, sparkling water graciously extended 'ere we get to the city proper. This last for the select men who hobby on union and who might possibly catch at a straw.

July 22, 1868. SOUTH SIDER.

Duty of Citizens in the Coming Election to Nominate City Officers.

MESSRS. EDITORS: I have been very much pleased with your remarks from time to time of late in urging the great importance of every citizen taking an active part in nominating suitable persons to fill the different city offices.

There is now meaning in your calling attention to this, because we know just what we are doing when we vote for the individuals themselves instead of delegates to a political convention without knowing for whom they would vote. There is now no excuse for any staying away from the election.

Let me say, then, to all church members, church-goers and all lovers of good order in our city, to see to it, as an important duty, that we have intelligent and good men nominated at the coming election. The present state of our city government clearly shows the great necessity for all to take a deep interest in this matter. If those already in the field do not please you, try to induce others to come out that would.

The writer of this would like to see others out, especially from the new wards, that all may be suited in casting their votes. In closing this paper permit me to modestly advise old political stagers to be a little cautious in offering their services to the dear people, for they will be sure to come to grief if they have in the past overreached or tread on their neighbor's corns.

RADICAL.

Our Correspondent of Last Fall—"L. M."

MESSRS. EDITORS: I write to-day merely to call attention to my letters of last Fall, published in your paper about the 5th and 7th of October, 1867. In the first I attempted to show that the Third Party movement was but a Copperhead dodge to draw off votes from the Republican ticket. For this, you recollect, I was violently assailed in the now deceased organ of the Third Party. The egg laid last Fall has at last hatched, but instead of a healthy, well developed chicken, we find a poor, sickly, half dead little thing, over which even the Post cook will find it hard to crow.

With your kind permission, I will, from time to time during the campaign, write, through your columns, a few words to my fellow-workmen on the issues of the canvass and their interest and duty in the crisis. L. M.

Republican Campaign of 1868.

The First ward (Allegheny) Grant Club has erected a spacious stand for speakers, and at 7½ o'clock on Saturday evening, 25th inst., at the Hope Engine House, foot of Marion avenue, will give to the winds of heaven their new gigantic national flag. The people en masse are expected to rally under this glorious flag on Saturday evening and on many other occasions. For these inaugurating ceremonies a number of distinguished speakers, with a band of music, have been secured. Hon. Russell Errett, Jno. M. Kirkpatrick, Maj. A. M. Brown, R. J. Powers, Esq., and others will address the assemblage. Rally, rally 'round the flag boys, and let the advocates of a new rebellion see the faces and hear the tramp of the patriot hosts who have conquered the old rebellion and are resolved to prevent a new one.
